The problem with the product I mean, this is a letter to Esquire in kotsky. So, the problem is is this is is two things, a when my house was raided, Narco was not present. The Narco officer was imprisoned that's what they told me. I mean, of course that's all hearsay math, but his license actually did he actually His license was badger actually had Narco on it. It took them a couple of minutes to get there. And he was not there for there. He was not present for the raid. Okay. The reason why we know did report or legend you know, filed the the had to vent someone on live on my road. Because mom didn't go anywhere. That week. The week my what had happened is my mother had tripped over a small dog for prepper small dog trying to get in house. She has a we have a small little has a Terrier Chihuahua. Mix. It was given to his boyfriend. Long story short, that couldn't take care of it anyway. And the little guy, he's he's a handful of fun. He's a great dog. But yeah, he might he was my mom was carrying some groceries. I wasn't there along because Karen had some groceries and the dog was around her feet. And she should have probably stopped, up the dog and moved it but instead she tried to get in the house and climb up the steps. Long story. Yeah. And she fell. It her a contusion above the eye. So that was that's what happened there. And so that's what kind of led to this thing is of me beating my my mother and everything. She said that there was one time in particular that she was at the mailbox. And someone pretty much stopped in the middle of the road. And stared at her. And then as the Nash is hit that individual drove away. She said she looked up in the mirror. She saw his face, and the guy was smiling and say and he said she said something the look on his face. was I got have, you know Hey, I So that's what that look was. And then the next thing you know, we had to read you know, this day you know except for she was living at the house next door. We've been living there for over 10 years. There's no reason for them to go to the house. If anyone saw her at a house. They do and sorry at her house, it would have been the house had been the you know, the bigger house not the smaller one where the rate occurred. And, you know, that's where she's in, you know, as far as all of our is concerned. As far as paperwork says it says that her house is is It doesn't say her house is So that's what makes it all Is a route to the house. I mean by by by perfect by the trail. It's our house. Anyway, that's neither here nor there. So that's one thing Narco wasn't there they went to the wrong house. And but the real was when they said you call a lawyer, you go to That was a real █████ That's that's fall apart that the problem that I'm running into is, with all with all this and everything we talked about is that if you wanted to force someone out of a neighborhood, this is exactly how you do it. You turn the neighborhood into some something or some place that he doesn't want to live to be in or he doesn't want to live in. That's how you do it. And if you do so, the problem with them is is they can't do anything straight. They're crooked. And so that's why, you know, that's why I was I'm excited. You know, I have all these you know, have these these things that they've done and it's all crooked It's all buddy buddy █████ And they're getting away with it. And it's pretty obvious Also, they said We were threatened with you know, I'm gonna tell you every █████ do and you every everybody that's involved in this is to is connected Abernethy, they all go to the same church together. They're all █████ They're all either related to each other or they go to church together. You had too much there's too much. There's too many correlations.
