It's really [REDACTED] to explain it to someone who doesn't know it. And especially to someone. Well, it's [REDACTED] to explain to someone who didn't grew up [REDACTED] who didn't grow up with it.

00:23

And it's even [REDACTED] to explain it to someone who doesn't know it. But when your entire life. You've lived in total privacy when you, when you've experienced when you've had complete total privacy, your entire life.

00:51

And then all of a sudden, someone puts a subdivision in your front [REDACTED] It absolutely destroys everything that you have come to understand is your home it's, it's, violated your [REDACTED]

01:14

And it is, it is encroached upon your sanity. My entire life I've lived out here in the country, southern [REDACTED]

01:28

And we've not had some problems with our neighbors. No problem at all. And we've been, we've been blessed and good and good ones.

01:41

Then the past year, I've had more. I've been yelled at more by sheriff's deputies. In the past year than I have in my entire life. And we've had more visits by the sheriff in the past year. Then, then, yeah, then my mother can remember, which would put us [REDACTED] to 1969, which is then, then, yeah, then my mother can remember, which would put us [REDACTED] to 1969, which is when we moved out here. My family's been out here since 1969. And we've lived out here in peace and privacy and solitude and uncomf[REDACTED]. And then, one of our neighbors disappeared. We don't know what happened to him.

02:40

He [REDACTED] disappeared. And then in his place. We found the appointed. Volunteer Fire Department Chief. Chief at the volunteer [REDACTED] one.

02:56

Living in his house. And I don't really remember much about him. The guy was [REDACTED] I was pretty quiet. I do know that when he didn't know that. When he was younger. Paid Drobo racing four wheeler, up and down these roads [REDACTED] he owned them. And I would [REDACTED] in front of cars and [REDACTED] hills and [REDACTED] the [REDACTED] out of the roads. And that was pretty irritating, it was pretty difficult to live on what someone thinks that their personal dirt [REDACTED] is pretty pretty irritating. But every time we move we're getting we're getting called on by the sheriff. That's that's [REDACTED] and something we plan on not something that's acceptable. We plan on taking it seems pretty obvious to me that someone is abusing their connections. Someone's abusing their power and their connections in [REDACTED] to force their will on an entire community. We've been out here longer. But I'm not here long enough as parents. And we never really bothered Anybody got a good life. I personally have been wanting and wanting and desired and needing, and what the blend that I've been needing to acquire for nearly a decade, got sold. There were no signs. It [REDACTED] one day we turn around and boom, it has a new landowner. And that landowner generated so much noise from construction equipment that I, that for a moment there, I thought I was living in Minnesota construction site in downtown Atlanta. It was salacious and it was all hours at [REDACTED] you'd go up until 10 [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] You listen to some heavy machinery, beating and clinking breaking up [REDACTED]

05:57

It was not fun. And in [REDACTED] to help out. I was asked by a neighbor, an older neighbor to [REDACTED] out the [REDACTED] property because she was unable to. I'm gonna have to break this down and write out [REDACTED] every incident, one by one and then I'm gonna have to combine it all together.
