It's one  in the morning on Thursday,  the 22nd. And the big old Tyler drove in from Abernathy his house. So I  finished actually  finish coming  that way.
And I didn't see I didn't see anybody. So I  think that's kind of interesting. I  wanted to come  the way I never saw them on the trip and if something was bad, and I was in the comments, I don't know where they're going to run  there, but they're doing it wherever they're going. They're staying to one or two  in the morning. Which is a little ridiculous.
Doing this now they're still doing something there's something going on so anyway,
